ORDER:

Government have initiated disciplinary action against Sri J.Ramalinga Chary, AEO (Retd) under Rule 9 of A.P. Revised Pension Rules, 1980 for irregular recommendations of payment of Rs.3,23,405/- to ineligible farmers towards compensation to the damaged horticultural crops due to cyclone occurred on 17th and 18th October, 1999 in Silagam Village of Kaviti Mandal, Srikakulam District and framed the following articles of charge:-

Articles of charge: "That the said Sri J.Ramalinga Chary, while working as A.E.O. Akkupalli, Vajrapukotturu Mandal recommended for payment of compensation to a tune of Rs.3,23,405/- for damages to the Horticulture Crops due to cyclone occurred on 17-10-1999 and 18-10-1999 in Silagam village of Kaviti Mandal to 26 bogus cases, Landless persons, two times for the same land, compensation in excess of the land against the actual extent possessed by ryots and ghost cases without noting the Survey Nos. of the land in the proposals for payment of compensation and thus he violated Rule 3 of APCS (Conduct)Rules, 1964..

2. The Charged Officer in his written statement of defence denied the charge. A regular inquiry was conducted into the charge and the Inquiry Officer in his inquiry report held the charge not proved against the charged officer. After examining the inquiry report it was decided to disagree with the findings of the I.O. Accordingly a copy of the Inquiry Report with disagreement factors was communicated to the Charged Officer for his representation, if any.

3. The Charged Officer in his representation has stated that the enumerated lists were scrutinized by the Revenue and Horticulture Department officials and compensation amount was paid by the Horticulture and Revenue authorities, that moreover he retired from service on 31-03-2000 and requested the Government to drop further action and exonerate him from the case.

4. Government have examined the representation of the retired charged officer with reference to the material available and considering the above, Government decided to exonerate him of the charge and to drop further action against him.

5. Accordingly, Sri J.Ramalinga Chary, AEO, (Retd) is exonerated from the charge and further action against him is dropped in this case.
